

Springtime Scavenger Hunt

What You Need

- A warm sunny day
- A trip into the garden or park

Instructions:

Something to do in the garden with the children or if you exercise in the local park or field. Children can go around looking for the items on the list and then take a photograph of all the things they found.